PROFILE

A proud alumnus of the esteemed University of Cape Town, Kieran Pather holds a Bachelor of Laws degree, laying the foundation for his illustrious legal career. His academic journey extends beyond law, with a voracious appetite for knowledge leading him to delve into various disciplines. Alongside his legal studies, Kieran undertook extensive coursework in Psychology, Philosophy, and Business, enriching his understanding of human behavior and organizational dynamics.

His areas of specialty include complex civil litigation, debt recovery, liquidation and has further taken profound interest in Alternative Dispute Resolution. Kieran represents high net worth client's and large corporations, often assisting them with day-to-day operational decisions which need to be aligned to the strategic goal set when resolving disputes or in the midst of litigation.

EXPERIENCE

Kieran Pather's dedication to excellence is evident in his pursuit of continuous learning. Having completed two comprehensive courses in Negotiation, Mediation, and Conflict Resolution Strategies, he has honed his skills in navigating disputes with finesse and diplomacy. These competencies have become integral to his strategic approach, enabling him to navigate contentious matters with tact and efficiency.

He excels in leading a dynamic team dedicated to achieving optimal outcomes considering the merits for each case. His leadership style is marked by determination and purpose, instilling in his team a shared commitment to delivering the desired result and securing favorable results for their clients. These skills have been heightened by his accreditation through the London School of Economics in Managing People and Teams.
