PROFILE

Sibusisiwe is an enthusiastic, self-motivated, and reliable young professional with a strong drive to grow in the corporate space. She holds a Bachelor of Social Science in Criminology and Legal Studies and an LLB degree. After completing her LLB, she secured articles at a small law firm, where she gained valuable skills in communication, time management, problem-solving, and a deep understanding of South African law and court procedures. Sibusisiwe remains eager to expand her knowledge and refine her skills.

EXPERIENCE

Sibusisiwe has established herself as a valuable member of the Wills & Estates Department, where her attention to detail and strong legal acumen have made a significant impact.

In addition to her contributions to the department, she has also supported other associates with various complex cases, demonstrating her versatility and commitment to excellence.

Prior to joining Pather & Pather, Sibusisiwe served as a Legal Professional Assistant, where she gained extensive experience in handling a wide range of legal matters, further strengthening her expertise in South African law and court procedures. Her ability to manage multiple responsibilities with efficiency and professionalism reflects her dedication to continuous growth and success in the legal field.
