Nikaila began her tenure as a Candidate Attorney at Pather & Pather Attorneys in 2023, where she has been actively involved in the litigation and commercial law departments. Her work includes conducting in-depth legal research, drafting detailed memoranda, and handling cases that require the interpretation, protection, and enforcement of constitutional law.

Nikaila's expertise spans Commercial and General Litigation, Software Law, and Engineering and Construction Law, including JBCC and NEC3 contracts. Her role involves liaising with clients, and assisting in preparing documents for Counsel, working with Counsel and Senior attorneys on complex litigation matters, drafting pleadings and legal opinions. She manages cases that require interpreting, protecting, and enforcing the law within these specialized areas.
