Selected by his peers to be included in
The Best Lawyers in South Africa for Litigation and Corporate Law

With three decades of experience, Sivi, the founder of Pather & Pather, has successfully litigated high-profile cases across all High Courts in South Africa, as well as in the Supreme Court of Appeal and the Constitutional Court.

He is an accredited International Mediator, certified by the London School of Mediation, and a distinguished certified mediator of the Arbitrators Association of South Africa. Sivi holds a profound interest in Alternative Dispute Resolution and has participated in the esteemed Programme on Negotiation at Harvard Law School.

Sivi has served as the lead attorney in numerous notable cases throughout South Africa, specializing in areas such as contracts, commercial disputes, international supply agreements, leasing, and various disputes related to Company Law, involving shareholders and directors.

He has also held the esteemed role of Arbitrator for several Bargaining Councils, including the Public Health & Welfare Sectoral Bargaining Council, the General Public Service Sectoral Bargaining Council, and the Education Labour Relations Council.

Sivi provides legal representation for a prestigious roster of clients, including key parastatals, leading banks, major insurers, and national entities. His clientele encompasses the JT Ross Group, Public Investment Corporation, the Industrial Development Corporation, the National Treasury, Transnet SOC Ltd and top banking institutions such as Standard Bank, Absa, and FNB; and insurance firms including Hollard, AIG, and Santam.

Moreover, Sivi represents a minimum of two publicly listed companies on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange (JSE). He also holds esteemed positions on several boards and executive committees within our client organizations, contributing his expertise to their strategic direction and governance.
