PROFILE

Jodine Fraai is a law graduate from the University of KwaZulu-Natal with a strong academic background and a passion for legal advocacy and public interest law.

Jodine is recognised for her disciplined work ethic, analytical thinking, and commitment to professional growth, having actively sought opportunities to gain practical exposure to the legal profession.

EXPERIENCE

Jodine has gained practical exposure to various areas of legal practice through vacation programmes, court shadowing, and academic legal activities.

Her experience includes reviewing legal documentation, attending court proceedings in both motion and criminal matters, and observing legal consultations and litigation processes. Through these opportunities, she has developed a strong understanding of courtroom procedure, legal drafting, and the practical workings of legal practice.
