Tasmia Immam Alli is an Associate in the Commercial Department at Pather & Pather Attorneys. She has experience in construction, engineering, infrastructure & renewable energy.

Prior to joining Pather & Pather Attorneys, Tasmia gained experience advising on complex contractual disputes, construction contracts, and infrastructure projects.

EXPERIENCE

Tasmia has experience advising both Employers and Contractors on the administration of construction contracts, particularly within the NEC3 suite of contracts. Her work includes advising on compensation events, contract administration, and dispute resolution processes, including adjudication proceedings.

She has been involved in complex infrastructure and energy matters, including providing legal and commercial support on the negotiation and amendment of Power Purchase Agreements (PPAs) and related project agreements for major South African state-owned companies. Tasmia has also assisted in NEC3-based adjudications, preparing submissions and advising on dispute strategies for large-scale infrastructure disputes.

Her litigation experience includes assisting and acting in construction and energy disputes, urgent High Court applications, defective works claims, force majeure issues, and other complex contractual matters.
