PROFILE

Jo'Hara Singh is an Admitted Attorney of the High Court of South Africa with approximately four years of post-admission experience in civil litigation and dispute resolution. She has experience across a broad range of legal disciplines, including family law, Road Accident Fund claims, medical negligence, insurance litigation, labour disputes, commercial litigation, and applications brought on behalf of the Legal Practice Council

EXPERIENCE

Jo'Hara currently practises within the Family Law Department at Pather & Pather Attorneys, where she is involved in divorce litigation, family law mediations, maintenance-related disputes, and general family law advisory work.

Prior to joining the firm, she served as an Associate Attorney at Hughes Madondo Incorporated, where she managed end-to-end litigation in a wide range of matters, including debt collection, motor vehicle accident claims, third-party liability disputes, insurance recoveries, commercial litigation, and applications for the strike off and suspension of legal practitioners on behalf of the Legal Practice Council. She also handled municipal litigation matters, including applications relating to unlawful structures and encroachments.

Her experience includes conducting High Court and Magistrates' Court litigation, drafting pleadings and heads of argument, preparing legal opinions, running trials, attending CCMA and Bargaining Council proceedings, negotiating settlements, and supervising candidate attorneys. She has also gained experience in deceased estate administration, drafting wills, and conveyancing-related applications.
