Daniela Basso joined Pather & Pather Attorneys as an Associate in the Litigation Department, where she works closely with attorney, Kay Naidoo. Daniela brings a strong academic foundation and valuable practical experience to the firm, contributing to a broad range of litigation matters. Her analytical approach, attention to detail, and commitment to delivering effective legal solutions enable her to provide strategic support to clients navigating complex legal disputes.

Prior to joining Pather & Pather Attorneys, Daniela practised in a public law environment, where she gained extensive experience in Town Planning Law, Local Government Law, Administrative Law, Environmental Law, judicial review proceedings, regulatory compliance matters, litigation, and dispute resolution, among other areas.

Her experience includes advising on statutory and regulatory frameworks, assisting with complex litigation matters, and representing the interests of clients in matters involving public sector and administrative decision-making. Daniela's diverse legal background allows her to approach disputes with both a practical and commercially minded perspective.
