Kay Naidoo is a senior attorney and legal strategist with decades experience advising public and private sector clients across South Africa. He is widely recognised for his expertise in litigation, administrative law, constitutional law, environmental law, procurement law, municipal governance, and town planning.

Throughout his career, Kay has earned a reputation for providing strategic, solutions-driven legal counsel and for successfully navigating complex legal, regulatory, and commercial matters across multiple sectors.

With vast experience in the legal profession, including as a Director at an established Durban Law firm, Kay has developed extensive expertise in civil litigation, public law, municipal law, environmental law, procurement law, construction law, insolvency, and business rescue.

He has represented clients before the Land Claims Court, High Courts, Supreme Court of Appeal, and Constitutional Court, advising on complex litigation, regulatory compliance, governance, procurement, and major infrastructure matters.

His experience includes acting for municipalities, state-owned entities, and public institutions on landmark matters involving constitutional challenges, town planning and zoning disputes, environmental regulation, procurement litigation, and municipal decision-making, while also successfully resolving complex commercial disputes through arbitration and alternative dispute resolution processes.

Kay has appeared before various statutory tribunals and served as a tribunal member adjudicating disputes. These include SPLUMA, valuation and procurement appeals.
